Faux Stained Glass Window Suncatcher

Easy, beginner-friendly: 45 minutes hands-on + 24 hours drying

WHAT YOU'LL NEED

- [ ] 5x7 in picture frame with real glass (thrifted)
- [ ] Black hot glue sticks (5)
- [ ] Hot glue gun with a fine nozzle
- [ ] Translucent glass paint in 4-5 colours
- [ ] Small liner brush and small flat brush
- [ ] Rubbing alcohol and cotton swabs
- [ ] Painter's tape
- [ ] Printed 5x7 poppy template
- [ ] Scissors
- [ ] Clear suction cup hook or 20 in chain
- [ ] Paper towels

Step by Step

- [ ] Remove glass from frame; clean both sides with alcohol
- [ ] Tape the printed poppy template behind the glass
- [ ] Trace every outline with black hot glue, 2-3 in at a time
- [ ] Pick off hot glue strings with tweezers
- [ ] Fill petals with tangerine and ruby glass paint
- [ ] Fill leaves with leaf green, liner brush at the edges
- [ ] Let paint dry flat for 24 hours, away from dust
- [ ] Reassemble the frame and add a suction cup hook
- [ ] Hang in a bright window and enjoy
