

Marbled Polymer Clay Beads Bracelet

Beginner: 55-70 min hands-on + 30 min bake + 30 min cooling

WHAT YOU'LL NEED

- [ ] Polymer clay in 3 colors, 1 oz (28 g) each
- [ ] Parchment paper or a ceramic tile
- [ ] Acrylic roller or smooth glass jar
- [ ] Craft knife (adults only)
- [ ] Wooden skewer or toothpick
- [ ] Baking sheet lined with parchment
- [ ] Oven thermometer
- [ ] Stretch cord, 0.8 mm, about 12 in (30 cm)
- [ ] Scissors
- [ ] Baby wipes or a damp towel
- [ ] Water-based gloss glaze (optional)
- [ ] Earring hooks and 2 jump rings (optional)

Step by Step

- [ ] Warm each clay block in your hands for a minute
- [ ] Roll 3 thin snakes, one in each color
- [ ] Twist the snakes together into one rope
- [ ] Fold the rope, roll into a log, repeat twice
- [ ] Slice the log into 12 mm pieces
- [ ] Roll each slice into a smooth ball
- [ ] Pierce each bead with a skewer, wiggle to widen
- [ ] Bake on parchment at 275°F for 30 minutes
- [ ] Cool completely, about 30 minutes before handling
- [ ] Thread 16 beads onto stretch cord, tie and trim

NOTES