

Hot Glue Embroidery Wildflower Tote Bag

Beginner-friendly, 1 hour hands-on plus 30 minutes paint drying

WHAT YOU'LL NEED

- [ ] Cotton canvas tote bag, 15 x 16 in, natural
- [ ] Low-temp hot glue gun
- [ ] 3 clear hot glue sticks, 7/16 in
- [ ] Acrylic paint: coral pink, sunflower yellow, leaf green
- [ ] Flat brush size 4 and round brush size 1
- [ ] Water-soluble fabric marker or white chalk
- [ ] Plain paper and pencil for sketching
- [ ] Cardboard sheet to fit inside the tote
- [ ] Parchment paper or silicone mat
- [ ] Toothpicks and cotton swabs
- [ ] Mod Podge Fabric or matte sealer (optional)
- [ ] Scissors

Step by Step

- [ ] Wash and dry the tote, then press it flat.
- [ ] Slide a cardboard sheet inside the tote.
- [ ] Sketch three 5-petal flowers and 2 leaves in chalk.
- [ ] Heat the low-temp glue gun for 5 minutes.
- [ ] Trace each petal outline with a steady glue line.
- [ ] Add stems and leaf outlines, then let glue set 10 min.
- [ ] Paint the raised lines coral, yellow and green.
- [ ] Let paint dry 30 minutes, then add a second coat.
- [ ] Seal with Mod Podge Fabric and dry overnight.
